Upland bird hunting takes place on Thursday, December 3 with a guide and trained upland dogs. This event will be scored with official shots for each team member. Sporting clays are also scored on Thursday. This is a 100 round station range, which is both enjoyable and challenging. The official goose hunt takes place on Friday, December 4. Each team will have an official guide. Team members and official guide have unlimited shots within the local shooting hours and bag limit. After all the team members official shots, members are free to continue hunting. If duck season is open during the goose hunt, teams will be allowed unlimited ducks shot up to bag limit.
